

TOWYN+20:

'FROM DISASTER TO DELIVERANCE?:
SIGNPOSTING THE ROAD TO CLEAN ENERGY AND COASTAL ADAPTATION'

26.2.10: DRAFT PROGRAMME

SEMINAR SESSION – 14.00-17.00 hrs at Llandudno Town Hall.

Chair: Cllr Stuart Anderson (Chair of Conwy Partnerships OSC)

Speakers:-

Sir John Houghton (former Director of Met Office and Chair of Scientific Panel of International Panel on Climate Change) 'After Copenhagen: the challenge to science and belief'

Professors Richard Burrows (Liverpool University Dept of Civil Engineering) & Roger Falconer (University of Cardiff's Dept of Hydro-environmental science): 'Releasing the Potential'

Karen Padmore (Director of Technium Cast, Bangor University): '3D visualisation of hydro-environmental events and projects'

Richard Dawson (Dept of Civil Engineering, Newcastle University) 'Agent-based modelling – who are the agents, and what for?'

Stephen Cirell (Director of Green Cornwall Programme): 'Lessons from the Green Cornwall Programme'

Panel session from 16.30-17.00hrs.

Closing comments: Roisin Willmott (Events Director, RTPI Cymru) &/or Rob Hastings (Director, Crown Estates) – both to have been invited to attend seminar on a 'listening brief'

Reception: expected to follow from 17.15 hrs.